

LONDON - THE STRAND AND CHARING CROSS.

1. 50
1891

POST CARD.

This space may be used for communication for Inland Postage and Foreign Countries.

THE STRAND AND CHARING CROSS.

The Strand is one of the leading thoroughfares between the City and West-End. The Monument in the courtyard at the entrance to Charing Cross Railway Station is a replica of the Cross erected in 1291 by Edward I., to commemorate the resting place of the body of his dead Queen Eleanor, before its final repose in Westminster Abbey.

THE ADDRESS ONLY TO BE WRITTEN HERE.